Customer Reviews

I bought this book for my girlfriend. She thoroughly enjoyed it, however she now expects me to give her a reasonable amount of time to get ready, and to wake her up only in the event I have fresh donuts ready for her to eat. That being said, this book is worth absolutely worth it. Jack Sjogren is a talented, witty, and dare I say, handsome man.

What a lovely book, gave it to two friends already and they loved it. Illustrations are charming, funny, whimsical ~ colors are gorgeous, create a nice feel that matches the sweet and funny tone. How many times do you read a book and finish feeling happy? A rarity for me, can't wait to figure out who else to give it to.

Love is actually wonderful and sort of sickeningly adorable and there are things we do and say for our partners that are special and worth celebrating. There is a world of greeting cards that try to capture those moments and somehow manage to make them totally embarrassing. This book is full of those moments and presents them in a way that is wonderful but not cringe-worthy!!!! You could gift this and not have to leave the room while your person opened it up. It is funny and realistic enough to balance the fact that it is actually a very cute book. My favorite page is the one about giving your partner plenty of time to get ready even though they're totally too slow and it's so annoying but you know by now to not say anything about it. That's the page I'm going to bookmark when I gift this book, and I'm sure you'll find a page that is just SO SPOT ON FOR YOUR OWN RELATIONSHIP that you feel compelled to bookmark it too.

The other reviews have made it clear that this book is incredibly sweet, but not sickeningly so. It's a delightful offering from LA-based cartoonist/dancer/musician/writer Jack Sjogren, and it is sort of thing that I just want to buy for everybody in my life that I care about. The book itself is gorgeous, with an embossed cover and bright, warm colors throughout. All the sentiments expressed within are such accessible and present feelings that really capture what the feelings actually feel like. Great job, Jack. I bought three already.

When I read someone a bedtime story, this is the book I choose. Not only is it lovely to hear, but it is lovely to see the complimentary color combinations covering each page.
