'Abdu'l-Baha In Their Midst

Synopsis

'Abdu'l-Bahá in Their Midst is the story of the journeys of 'Abdu'l-Bahá to Europe and North America over the period 1911 to 1913. Rather than focusing on the public talks he gave, inspiring though these were, it narrates how 'Abdu'l-Bahá affected and transformed the lives of those he met, described in their own words.

Some of the stories in the book moved me to tears. It is well-written and covers the journey of 'Abdu'l-Baha through the United States in 1912 - exactly 100 years ago. Organized in chronological order, also covers some of the time 'Abdu'l-Baha spent in Europe. I couldn't put it down!

For me, it's been a fun read - easy and entertaining. Redman has pulled together an entire book of incidents showing not just what Abdu'l-Baha did, but how people reacted to him. Because so many are a paragraph to a few pages, you can pick it up, read a bit, put it down and come back later. You can also get swept along for a couple hours. LOLI think it is a fine adjunct to the more formal histories of Abdu'l-Baha in the west.

This is a good read. It gives you an idea of what 'Abdu'l-Baha meant by "follow me and be as I am". On his three year track across Europe and the US, he continually spoke about the importance of the Spiritual development of the human race and the Unity we are charged to develop, by God, and the same Spiritual foundation of all faiths. I recommend this book to everyone!!!!

This is so well written! I love stories and these stories almost made me feel like I was right there experiencing these amazing events.

A wonderful description of a historic journey in the West by a unique man from the East. To follow 'Abdu'l-Bahá through the eyes of those close to him was like joining the journey. Amazing story for any one to read.

This book is very inspirational. Makes me wish I had been around to meet the amazing man. The effect he had on all who met him, or even saw him was quite amazing. He definitely was all he claimed to be, the son of the Messenger of God.
