Nurturing Children And Youth: A Developmental Guidebook

Synopsis

Grounded in current research and theory, this book clearly defines the typical progressions in physical, cognitive, social, emotional, moral and spiritual growth for each phase of development, from infants to young adults. Each of the seven chapters is followed by key characteristics and ways to support the child in the context of Unitarian Universalism. Written for parents, ministers and religious educators, this resource provides a roadmap for living and working with children and youth in our faith communities.
