Because this is a five part story and each book continues where the last one left off, I decided to write a cumulative review. In this steamy multiple partner romance we are introduced to three likable characters. New York City girl Allison and Colorado billionaires, Jake and Hunter. You surely read this series from book one otherwise you wouldn't be here. From book one we know that Allison, with encouragement from her best friend, leaves New York and her dirtbag ex-boyfriend behind for a summer job in Colorado. She will work as an assistant to a successful and popular food chef and blogger. Jake is co owner of the ranch where his sister, Allison's new boss, lives and works. Jake is the first to greet Alli and he instantly feels attracted. This NYC girl is all he can think about. Jake wants her badly. But he is not the only one. Uh oh... Hunter is Jake's partner as well as best friend. Both men are gorgeous, sexy and used to getting anything they want. And of course they both want Alli. Alli is conflicted by the attention she receives from both men. They ooze sensuality and sex and she wants them both but doesn't know which one to choose. Wouldn't you know... this lucky girl does not have to choose. How wonderfully and incredibly convenient! Sarcasm here... (with a bit of envy of course) This was one hell of a hot and steamy story. Jake and Hunter were such dirty talkers. And talk about dominant! Hot damn!
