Good Girl: A Bad Boy Mafia Romance (Valetti Crime Family Book 3)

Synopsis

I'm not a good man, but I'm damn good at what I do. I was raised to be ruthless, and as muscle for the Petrov mafia, that's all I am. Then she got caught in the crossfire, and when it was over, she was mine - given as a temporary gift. Once a mafia princess, now just a bargaining chip, she wasn't a part of my plans. She's scared, alone, and has the most perfect, innocent baby blues that beg me to protect her. There's not an ounce of good in me. I don't deserve her, but I want her. I want her sweet submission and tempting curves, at any cost. Even if I have to kill every f*cker who stands between us. This good girl belongs to me. This is a standalone, full-length mafia romance with a filthy-mouthed, possessive bad boy. Dark mafia themes throughout.

Guaranteed HEA.

Customer Reviews

Disclaimer: I was given a copy of this book in exchange for an honest review. I cannot say enough good things about author Willow Winters and her Valetti mafia stories. Good Girl is the third in the series of well-written, sometimes dark, but always gripping stories about mafia families and in particular, the Valettis. Good Girl is a look at some of the grittier sides of mafia dealings, but is at its heart a love story. Kane has suffered betrayal by a family member and the murder of the remainder of his family. His parents and siblings were killed in front of him. The only mistake -- the killers did not make sure Kane was also dead. Ava is the princess of another mafia family which had been killed in front of her. The killers took her and did terrible, unspeakable things to her in front of her father before they sliced his throat. Kane and Ava meet after Kane starts working with a new family who are also new associates of the Valettis and they are trying to gain new territory and expand their operations. Part of the expansion is the training and selling of women as sex slaves. Neither Kane nor the Valettis want any part of this, but Kane must try to come up with a way to refuse his new boss AND stay alive. While neither Kane nor Ava are blood members of the Valetti family, Vince and the rest of the Valettis are still a big part of this story. Ava focuses on revenge to get through what they have done to her. As Kane takes custody of Ava, he sees something in her that intrigues him. Ava works diligently to set her suspicion and fear aside and trust Kane's kindness. Will Kane be able to break away from his new boss and the distasteful way he does business? Will he find a family that he can trust and belong to? Will Ava ever find her faith and trust in another human being?
