Customer Reviews

I truly enjoyed this story. The heir to a Duke falls in love with the gardener's daughter made for a delightful story. My reason for giving 4 stars instead of five is due to the story focus on her treatment. So much so, that it felt like the hero was just a byproduct. I loved the story's direction. I just wish it had been more. Would I recommend it? Yes. It's short and worth the read.

A very true fairy tale, but beautifully written. I did enjoy the Cinderella story and the Prince Charming rescue, what else could a true romantic like me desire for an ending

Ms. Darcy writes clean romances and this one continues in the same vein. It could have developed into a longer story but it suited as a quick read.
